Interventionist Roles and Responsibilities:

St. Gabriel Classical Academy (SGCA) is seeking a candidate to work in reading intervention for the 2025-26 school year. A successful candidate will specialize in providing Orton-Gillingham reading intervention and/or instruction to students in grades 1-5. This position reports directly to the Lead Interventionist and will have a variety of responsibilities related to delivering the school's approach to literacy instruction.

The position's preferred qualifications:

- Orton-Gillingham experience and training (or willing to be trained)
- Bachelor's degree in Education, Reading, or a related field
- Teaching certification (Elementary Education)
- Previous experience as an academic interventionist, special education teacher, or in a similar role supporting student reading development
- Exceptional written and oral communication skills
- Ability to work collaboratively with educators, parents, and administrators
- Experience teaching students in grades K-5
- Strong skills in communication and collaboration
- Knowledge of learning disabilities, reading skills, and the science of reading
- Experience administering and interpreting reading assessments
- Full understanding of differentiated instructional strategies across the curriculum
- Outstanding interpersonal and organizational skills

The Reading Interventionist will:

- Attend required summer training and teach our Orton-Gillingham program with fidelity
- Instruct students in grades 1-5, tailoring reading lessons to each students' needs
- Provide one-on-one or small-group instruction daily
- Partner proactively with staff to support students with different learning styles, and support teachers in their efforts to advance students with different learning needs
- Provide written student progress reports as requested to classroom teachers and parents, including assessment results and recommendations for reading skill building
- Keep accurate and confidential documentation of student sessions and assessments
